

Computer Science Intern, Raise Green, Inc. (Remote)

ABOUT RAISE GREEN

Raise Green makes it easy to invest in solar and climate. We are a licensed fintech company that allows anyone to invest in local, community resilience. Our marketplace allows project creators to raise money for their projects through investment from anyone (retail, accredited, institutional). Our inclusive finance model is designed for any project with a contractual cash flow: community solar, microgrids, electrical vehicle infrastructure, community agriculture, energy efficiency, and battery deployments — as long as social and environmental benefits are at the core of their design. We are financing a healthy, just, and sustainable future that allows anyone to access and benefit from climate-resilient local infrastructure.
